COUNTING REGULAR ARMY, NA-TIONAL GUARD AND VOLUN-

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 13.—A general checkup of the reserve organization of the army seemed probable today as the result of certain disappointments in the defense test.

Although the War Department termed the general results "satisfactory," it is understood that the turnout of one-day volunteers and the number of communities participating were not entirely what was hoped for.

Out of the 16,792,781 persons who participated in the test throughout the country, only 838,000 offered themselves for one day's service with any of the regular military organizations.

With 120,000 regular army troops and 272,000 national guard troops the actual military mobilization was only 1,220,000 men.

Another feature of the test that was a disappointment was the relatively small proportion of American communities which held services.

Though all of the larger ones held imposing demonstrations the number of communities engaged was only 6,535, or about one-eighth of the 52,000 incorporated communities in the country.

London, Sept. 13.—Chang Tso Lin,

CASS COUNTY WILL CALL FOR BIDS ON SYLVAN BRIDGE JOB

County Engineer Viner and County Commissioner Berglund returned from Walker where they had gone to appear before the Cass county commissioners in regard to the repair of the piers of the Sylvan bridge. The Morrison county commissioners recently opened bids on this work and awarded the contract to A. B. Peterson subject to the approval of the Cass county officials.

Owing to the fact that Cass county was not mentioned in the advertisements for bids on this work it was decided not to accept the bid offered and Cass county has agreed to immediately advertise for bids on the job.

It is almost imperative, according to Mr. Viner, to have the work done this fall as the present piers are in bad shape and he does not believe they will support the bridge through another winter.—Little Falls Daily

Horse Lives Idle Life of Luxury in Livery
While City Pays Bill

St. Paul, Sept. 13.—A bay horse of uncertain age is eating the city police force out of house and home.
According to J. E. Corcoran, deputy commissioner of public safety, today, unless the horse is claimed by somebody soon, drastic action will have to be taken to save the department's funds from its voracious appetite.

The horse was picked up July 7.
No one has claimed it. Yet it has been living an easy life in a private livery stable, with the city paying its board bill of $1 a day.

The horse weighs about 1,000 pounds, has the usual four legs and is of uncertain age.

ROUND-WORLD
FLIERS HOP OFF FOR DAYTON, O.

UNSETTLED WEATHER ALONG THE ROUTE, BUT NO
RAIN

LINE OF FLIGHT IS A BEELINE OF FOUR HUNDRED MILES

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 13.—The round-the-world fliers hopped off from Bolling Field for Dayton, O., 400 miles away, at 10:50 a. m., eastern standard time, today. Final reports indicated unsettled weather along the route but no rain. Under ordinary conditions the flight should take between five and six hours.

No stops are contemplated. The route is a beeline between Washington and Dayton, with possible deviations to fly over Wheeling, W. Va., and Columbus, O.

The fliers were ready to take off at 9:30 but first reports of rain along the route held them, and then a broken tail skid on Lieut. Smith's plane caused further delay.

When they finally got away, Smith took the lead, with Wade and Nelson flying behind and above him in their familiar V-shaped formation, and they soared west over the Potomac.

Field officials announced that it would not start until 1 p. m., due to the anticipated late arrival of the round-the-world bigmen from Wash-

EVEN LAST FISH WILL BRING TOURISTS HERE

Despite the fact that the fish and game of this great state are becoming less numerous each year there will be no danger of a decrease in the number of tourists who are attracted here by them until the last fish is gone from the lakes," declared
W. T. Hedden, of James Hedden's Sons of Dowagiac, Mich., leading manufacturers of fishing tackle and baits, who was a Bemidji visitor today.

"Fishermen who love to fish will always be enthusiastically for the last remaining fish in the lake as they fish now in lakes full of the finny tribe. A Chicago paper recently had a lengthy writeup, contributed by a sportsman who had spent an entire week at a resort in Michigan and caught one bass."

Mr. Hedden also expressed a belief that a chain of reasonably priced summer hotels to supplant the tourist camps would be a paying investment in Minnesota.—Bemidji Daily Pioneer.

LEOPOLD AND LOEB TAKE UP
MANUAL LABOR

PRISONER NO. 9305 PUTS TO-GETHER CHAIR PARTS IN SHOP

PRISONER NO. 9306 BEGAN HIS WEAVING IN THE RATTAN
SHOP

Joliet, Ill., Sept. 13.—Prisoner number 9,305 in the Illinois state penitentiary, until yesterday, Richard Loeb of Chicago, today started work putting together chair parts in the prison shops.

Prisoner number 9,306, until yesterday Nathan Leopold, Jr., also of Chicago, began weaving in the rattan shop at the same time.

After another night in "courts solitary," the youths who got a thrill out of murdering Bobby Franks were called at 6 o'clock. They cleaned their cells and then were marched into the huge dining hall with the other prisoners for breakfast. At 7:30 they went to a movie.

The prisoners go to the movies early on Saturday morning. Through arrangements made with Joliet film houses one of the features to be shown in town is brought out and shown to the prisoners in the cramped auditorium.

With their assignment to cells today, "king" and "slave" will be separated for several years if not forever. Henceforward they will see each other only at a distance in assembly or in the dining hall where they will have no opportunity to speak. Several years from now it is possible that they will meet again on the prison honor farm or at some of the outside shops. Until then they must follow separate trails.

This also ends their reading about themselves and their experiments in crime. Newspapers are brought to the prison but all reference to this crime will be deleted for at least months.

The boys have given evidence that they realize at last in part just what they have done. Advised to "use good judgment" and "not to put on airs" if they wanted to make prison life bearable, they protested that they had no intention of being "up stage" and added: "If we had used good judgment we wouldn't be here."

The opening of the new trunk highway between St. Paul and Stillwater marks another advance in the program to make Minnesota the model good roads state of the union. That this achievement is not far distant can be seen by anyone traveling through the state and observing the network of highways which in a few years have replaced wagon tracks.

And with the building of roads has come the greatest era of development in other ways in the history of the state. No one can honestly deny the fact that every penny spent in road building has proven an exceptionally wise investment. In view of what has been achieved, sentiment everywhere should be united for continuing the work and hastening to completion the program so well carried out up to this time.—

GERMANY FACES
ANOTHER CRISIS
IN CABINET AFFAIRS

Berlin, Sept. 13.—Germany was confronted today with the makings of still another cabinet crisis.
Foreign Minister Stresemann's insistence upon sending a note to the powers denying Germany's war guilt, plus his disinclination to permit this country to join the League of Nations, has caused friction talk of dissolution of the Reichstag and new election.

The breach between Stresemann and Chancellor Marx was widened as the result of the former's insistence upon thrusting his anti-league views before the cabinet meeting next week.

CHILD WELFARE

LEGION PLANNED

AMERICAN LEGION TO LAUNCH
CAMPAIGN COVERING NAT-

2 SUBJECTS COMPRISE MOST IM-PORTANT RECOMMENDATIONS OF COM. QUINN

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Sept. 13.—The American Legion national convention here next week will enlarge its child welfare policy and launch a new campaign for conservation of natural resources.

These two subjects will comprise the most important recommendations of Commander John R. Quinn in his address Monday, he said today.

"We are trying to care for 5,000 orphans of veterans," Commander Quinn said, "and we have already established an orphanage in Otter Lake, Mich. Another is being established in Oklahoma."

Impressed with the need for conservation of the nation's natural treasures by his travels through 39 states in the last year, Commander Quinn said he would urge the Legion to "manfully fight" those who seek private gain from the country's resources.

Half a dozen Legion committees were in session today on final arrangements for the convention, which opens Monday. Tomorrow other committees will meet and the executive committee will be last to get together and approve arrangements.

The Legion convention will open Monday morning in the Auditorium.
The convention of auxiliaries and 40 and 8 gets under way Monday afternoon. There is a long program of speeches for the convention for the first day. Commander Quinn and Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Bureau, are among the most important leaders scheduled for addresses. Plenty of entertainment has been arranged for the Legionnaires and ladies during the week.

(By United Press)
Chicago, Sept. 13.—Babe Ruth, champion home-run slugger, signed himself into a clash with union labor when he permitted his name to be used in connection with advertisements for a certain brand of shirts.
The Illinois State Federation of Labor in convention at Peoria criticised Ruth and appointed a committee to wait on him for an explanation.

"Gee, it's a new one on me," Ruth told the United Press. "I signed the contract calling for the use of my name without finding out whether they were made in union shops."

"Miller Huggins had me sign the contract and so I'll have to see him

PRES. COOLIDGE
ISSUES ORDER
FOR RETIREMENT

GAZETTED THE ORDER TO ARMY WITH LIST OF ACCOMPLISH-MENTS OF CAREER

TRIBUTE RARELY RECEIVED BY ARMY OFFICER FROM COM-MANDER-IN-CHIEF

(By United Press)
Washington, Sept. 13.—President Coolidge today issued the order that retired General John J. Pershing from active service and at the same time extended to him the thanks of the nation for his eminent services.

Although Pershing's connection with the army was automatically severed at midnight last night, the president gazetted the order to the army today with a detailed list of the accomplishments of his career, a tribute rarely received by an army officer from his commander-in-chief.

The order follows:

"The White House, Washington,
September 13, 1924.
"General John J. Pershing, general of the army, having this day reached the age of 64 years, is retired from active service in conformity with the requirement of an act of Congress approved June 30, 1882.

"In announcing the termination of this distinguished soldier's active military career, it is deemed appropriate to remind the country of his eminent services and the nation's obligation to whose accomplishments contributed largely to the defense of the world's liberties.

"Entering the army as a commissioned officer after graduating at the United States Military Academy in 1886, he endured the hardships of the Indian campaign then necessary for the pacification of the western frontier. In the war with Spain he participated in the Santiago campaign in Cuba. In the Philippine Islands, after their acquisition by the United States he assisted in the suppression of the native insurrection and his success in bringing under control some of the most turbulent tribes is a matter of history.

"Becoming a general officer in 1906, he was entrusted with many important commands, and when the unsettled condition of the border of Mexico in 1916 made it necessary to send a military expedition into that country he was selected for its commander. In exercising this command as well as in others that had fallen to him he demonstrated his capacity for the highest military functions and his selection as commander of the American expeditionary forces in the World War was a natural consequence.

"His conduct of that high command full justified his selection, as well as his elevation to the highest rank in our military services, which was conferred upon him permanently under authority of a special act of Congress in recognition of his fullfillment of his country's expectations.

American troops under his command and by their high qualities and skillful management assisted materially in the defeat of the Central Powers of Europe, which resulted in the freedom of civilization from autocratic rule.

"As one of the very few officers who ever were given the rank of general in the permanent military establishment of the country, he has exercised supreme command over the largest body of troops ever called into action by the United States government. His services to the world in the greatest conflict in which military forces have ever been engaged have been recognized through the award of the highest decorations by the governing authorities of Belgium, Great Britain, China, Czechoslovakia, France, Greece, Italy, Japan, Montenegro, Panama, Roumania and Serbia.

"In his position as chief of staff since the termination of the world conflict he has been the mainstay of the executive in preparing an army of modest dimensions to be the nu-

Realizing the hopelessness of carry-determined to appeal to La Follette supporters to vote for a Democratic administration on the grounds that a vote for La Follette can only be one of protest.

WHEELER IN SPEECH SCORES

WHEELER SAYS BIG BUSINESS
DOMINATES THE WHOLE COUNTRY

(By United Press)
Altoona, Pa., Sept. 13.—William Butler, chairman of the republican national committee, was the personal representative of J. P. Morgan at the Cleveland convention, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, independent vice-presidential candidate, charged today.

"Butler took charge of the convention for the house of Morgan and chose for the standard-bearer of the republican hosts Calvin Coolidge, whose close advisor, Mr. Morrow, is of the House of Morgan," Wheeler said.

Informing railway shop workers of the issues to be stressed in the independent campaign, Wheeler declared that "corrupt big business has assumed the functions of government and through the process of court injunctions has attempted to reduce hundreds of thousands of our industrial population to a state of involuntary servitude.

"Big business has corraled the wealth of the nation so that 70 per cent of the population has about 5 per cent of the money in the country," Wheeler declared.

"Three fourths of the population are within 30 days of actual want,"
he said.

Wheeler left here early this morning for Philadelphia, where he is scheduled to speak at a luncheon.

cleus of any military force the country may be obliged to place in the field. He has taken a leading part in the development of the citizen components of the army of the United States.

"General Pershing has already received from Congress the thanks of that body and of the American people, and now I wish to send anew the thanks of the nation for his eminent services, and I feel certain that I voice the sentiment of the entire citizenry of the republic in wishing him long life, happiness and prosperity in the retirement he has so richly earned.

19 YEAR OLD
YOUTH CLAIMS
HE'S INNOCENT

BERNARD GRANT OF CHICAGO, CHARGED WITH MURDER, IN-TERVIEWED BY U. P.

GRANT SAYS HE COULD GET OUT
IF HE HAD LEOPOLD AND LOEB'S LAWYERS

(By United Press)
Chicago, Sept. 13.—"It's the honest to God truth, they're giving me the rope on the confession of a man that's crazy and most of it's shaky testimony. If I had half the money that Loeb and Leopold have I could hire a lot of fancy lawyers and get my friends to work and have a chance to prove it."

Bernard Grant, 19-year old youth sentenced to hang October 17 in connection with the murder of Patrolman Ralph Souders during a holdup in December, 1922, thus unburdened himself to the United Press today in the visitor's room of the Cook county jail.

"I don't hold no hard feelings against those two. They're good fellows and I am glad to see them go to the big house instead of swinging. But I don't think I've had a fair break.

"They confessed and pleaded guilty and spent a lot of money hiring fine lawyers. They got off with going to prison.

"I didn't have anything to do with the murder. All I did was get tied up with it because some of the policemen had seen me around the street corners and said I was a little wild."

There is nothing of the super-intellectual in Grant. He has no horde of powerful friends. Anyone of a thousand youths in the back of the yards district where he was born and raised and got what education he has received would look just like him.

Thin, almost underfed, he looks at the visitor almost pleadingly. In his gray eyes there is an obvious fear of the gallows.

"Yes, I'm nervous," he confessed.
"It isn't long until October 17, when you think of what's coming."

"Now that these boys have got off there may be someone who will pay a little attention to my case. Maybe the money that helped them will help me too.

"You know, I was never arrested before. Well, I did get fined $5 once for walking past the color line during the race riots. But I never did get pulled up for anything serious.

"It's the honest to God truth, I didn't do that murder. All I want is an even chance to prove it.

"I never had any education and no chances. If I had, you can bet I wouldn't be here, and if I had got into a fix like this I'd stand a better chance to get out."

"I was born down there in Chicago on South Halstead street. I had to leave when I was only 14. My father lost both legs in a railroad accident and walks on artificial legs and crutches.

"Up until the time I was taken up
I worked and helped support my mother."

Walter Krauser, 19, who confessed to the murder of the policeman, involved Grant.

Krauser afterward retracted his statement involving Grant, Attorney E. Swanson, appearing for the latter, declares.

Swanson is preparing a petition calling upon Governor Small to commune the sentence.

Although the War Department termed the general results "satisfactory," it is understood that the turnout of one-day volunteers and the number of communities participating were not entirely what was hoped for.

With their assignment to cells today, "king" and "slave" will be separated for several years if not forever. Henceforward they will see each other only at a distance in assembly or in the dining hall where they will have no opportunity to speak. Several years from now it is possible that they will meet again on the prison honor farm or at some of the outside shops. Until then they must follow separate trails.

This also ends their reading about themselves and their experiments in crime. Newspapers are brought to the prison but all reference to this crime will be deleted for at least months.

The boys have given evidence that they realize at last in part just what they have done. Advised to "use good judgment" and "not to put on airs" if they wanted to make prison life bearable, they protested that they had no intention of being "up stage" and added: "If we had used good judgment we wouldn't be here."

The opening of the new trunk highway between St. Paul and Stillwater marks another advance in the program to make Minnesota the model good roads state of the union. That this achievement is not far distant can be seen by anyone traveling through the state and observing the network of highways which in a few years have replaced wagon tracks. And with the building of roads has come the greatest era of development in other ways in the history of the state. No one can honestly deny the fact that every penny spent in road building has proven an exceptionally wise investment. In view of what has been achieved, sentiment everywhere should be united for continuing the work and hastening to completion the program so well carried out up to this time.—St. Paul Daily News.

GERMANY FACES ANOTHER CRISIS IN CABINET AFFAIRS

Berlin, Sept. 13.—Germany was confronted today with the makings of still another cabinet crisis. Foreign Minister Stresemann's insistence upon sending a note to the powers denying Germany's war guilt, plus his disinclination to permit this country to join the League of Nations, has caused fresh talk of dissolution of the Reichstag and new election.

The breach between Stresemann and Chancellor Marx has widened as the result of the former's insistence upon thrusting his anti-league views before the cabinet meeting next week.

YOUNG LA FOLLETTE RESIGNS AS STATE CHAIRMAN, WISCONSIN

Madison, Wis., Sept. 13.—Burdened by his duties in connection with his father's campaign for the presidency, Robert M. La Follette, Jr., announced in a letter to friends here that he would resign as state republican chairman next week.

CHILD WELFARE POLICY OF THE LEGION PLANNED

AMERICAN LEGION TO LAUNCH CAMPAIGN COVERING NATURAL RESOURCES

2 SUBJECTS COMPRISE MOST IMPORTANT RECOMMENDATIONS OF COM. QUINN

(By United Press) St. Paul, Sept. 13.—The American Legion national convention here next week will enlarge its child welfare policy and launch a new campaign for conservation of natural resources.

These two subjects will comprise the most important recommendations of Commander John R. Quinn in his address Monday, he said today.

"We are trying to care for 5,000 orphans of veterans," Commander Quinn said, "and we have already established an orphanage in Otter Lake, Mich. Another is being established in Oklahoma."

Impressed with the need for conservation of the nation's natural treasures by his travels through 39 states in the last year, Commander Quinn said he would urge the Legion to "manfully fight" those who seek private gain from the country's resources.

Half a dozen Legion committees were in session today on final arrangements for the convention, which opens Monday. Tomorrow other committees will meet and the executive committee will be last to get together and approve arrangements.

The Legion convention will open Monday morning in the Auditorium. The convention of auxiliaries and 40 and 8 gets under way Monday afternoon. There is a long program of speeches for the convention for the first day. Commander Quinn and Frank T. Hines, director of the Veterans' Bureau, are among the most important leaders scheduled for addresses. Plenty of entertainment has been arranged for the Legionnaires and ladies during the week.

BABE RUTH IN CONTROVERSY WITH UNION LABOR

PERMITS NAME TO BE USED WITH A CERTAIN BRAND OF SHIRTS

COMMITTEE FROM ILLINOIS FEDERATION OF LABOR WAITS ON RUTH

(By United Press) Chicago, Sept. 13.—Babe Ruth, champion home-run slugger, signed himself into a clash with union labor when he permitted his name to be used in connection with advertisements for a certain brand of shirts. The Illinois State Federation of Labor in convention at Peoria criticized Ruth and appointed a committee to wait on him for an explanation.

"Gee, it's a new one on me," Ruth told the United Press. "I signed the contract calling for the use of my name without finding out whether they were made in union shops."

"Miller Huggins had me sign the contract and so I'll have to see him before I can tell the committee anything."

PRES. COOLIDGE ISSUES ORDER FOR RETIREMENT

GAZETTED THE ORDER TO ARMY WITH LIST OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF CAREER

TRIBUTE RARELY RECEIVED BY ARMY OFFICER FROM COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF

(By United Press) Washington, Sept. 13.—President Coolidge today issued the order that retired General John J. Pershing from active service and at the same time extended to him the thanks of the nation for his eminent services.

Although Pershing's connection with the army was automatically severed at midnight last night, the president gazetted the order to the army today with a detailed list of the accomplishments of his career, a tribute rarely received by an army officer from his commander-in-chief.

The order follows:

"The White House, Washington, September 13, 1924. General John J. Pershing, general of the army, having this day reached the age of 64 years, is retired from active service in conformity with the requirement of an act of Congress approved June 30, 1882.

"In announcing the termination of this distinguished soldier's active military career, it is deemed appropriate to remind the country of his eminent services and the nation's obligation to those accomplishments contributed largely to the defense of the world's liberties.

"Entering the army as a commissioned officer after graduating at the United States Military Academy in 1886, he endured the hardships of the Indian campaign then necessary for the pacification of the western frontier. In the war with Spain he participated in the Santiago campaign in Cuba. In the Philippine Islands, after their acquisition by the United States he assisted in the suppression of the native insurrection and his success in bringing under control some of the most turbulent tribes is a matter of history.

"Becoming a general officer in 1906, he was entrusted with many important commands, and when the unsettled condition of the border of Mexico in 1916 made it necessary to send a military expedition into that country he was selected for its command. In exercising this command as well as in others that had fallen to him he demonstrated his capacity for the highest military functions and his selection as commander of the American expeditionary forces in the World War was a natural consequence.

"His conduct of that high command full justified his selection, as well as his elevation to the highest rank in our military services, which was conferred upon him permanently under authority of a special act of Congress in recognition of his fulfillment of his country's expectations.

American troops under his command and by their high qualities and skillful management assisted materially in the defeat of the Central Powers of Europe, which resulted in the freedom of civilization from autocratic rule.

"As one of the very few officers who ever were given the rank of general in the permanent military establishment of the country, he has exercised supreme command over the largest body of troops ever called into action by the United States government. His services to the world in the greatest conflict in which military forces have ever been engaged have been recognized through the award of the highest decorations by the governing authorities of Belgium, Great Britain, China, Czechoslovakia, France, Greece, Italy, Japan, Montenegro, Panama, Roumania and Serbia.

"In his position as chief of staff since the termination of the world conflict he has been the mainstay of the executive in preparing an army of modest dimensions to be the nucleus of any military force the country may be obliged to place in the field. He has taken a leading part in the development of the citizen components of the army of the United States.

"General Pershing has already received from Congress the thanks of that body and of the American people, and now I wish to send anew the thanks of the nation for his eminent services, and I feel certain that I voice the sentiment of the entire citizenry of the republic in wishing him long life, happiness and prosperity in the retirement he has so richly earned.

DAVIS ENDEAVORS TO CORRAL THE LA FOLLETTE VOTE

(By United Press) On Board the Davis Special, En Route to Topeka, Kan., Sept. 13.—Discovery of a Coolidge majority in virtually every western state has caused John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate, to endeavor to corral the La Follette vote.

Realizing the hopelessness of carrying the West unless he can consolidate progressive forces, Davis today determined to appeal to La Follette supporters to vote for a Democratic administration on the grounds that a vote for La Follette can only be one of protest.

WHEELER IN SPEECH SCORES REPUBLICANS

CLAIMS BUTLER WAS PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE OF J. P. MORGAN CO.

WHEELER SAYS BIG BUSINESS DOMINATES THE WHOLE COUNTRY

(By United Press) Altoona, Pa., Sept. 13.—William Butler, chairman of the republican national committee, was the personal representative of J. P. Morgan at the Cleveland convention, Senator Burton K. Wheeler, independent vice-presidential candidate, charged today.

"Butler took charge of the convention for the house of Morgan and chose for the standard-bearer of the republican hosts Calvin Coolidge, whose close advisor, Mr. Morrow, is of the House of Morgan," Wheeler said.

Informing railway shop workers of the issues to be stressed in the independent campaign, Wheeler declared that "corrupt big business has assumed the functions of government and through the process of court injunctions has attempted to reduce hundreds of thousands of our industrial population to a state of involuntary servitude."

"Big business has corralled the wealth of the nation so that 70 per cent of the population has about 5 per cent of the money in the country," Wheeler declared.

"Three fourths of the population are within 30 days of actual want," he said.

Wheeler left here early this morning for Philadelphia, where he is scheduled to speak at a luncheon.

No Wealth in Oil Shales

The United States bureau of mines has conducted tests which disprove the hysterical reports that gold, silver, platinum and potash have been obtained in paying quantities from oil shales. That it is not commercially possible to recover any of these materials has been demonstrated by the assays.

Power From Volcanoes

In Italy and some of the volcanic islands of the Pacific the steam power issuing from volcanoes has been harnessed for engineering purposes. The people of the Tuscan town of Lardello light their streets, heat their homes and do their cooking by means of volcanic steam pressure, which generates enough heat to cook a joint in less than half an hour.

cleus of any military force the country may be obliged to place in the field. He has taken a leading part in the development of the citizen components of the army of the United States.

"General Pershing has already received from Congress the thanks of that body and of the American people, and now I wish to send anew the thanks of the nation for his eminent services, and I feel certain that I voice the sentiment of the entire citizenry of the republic in wishing him long life, happiness and prosperity in the retirement he has so richly earned.

19 YEAR OLD YOUTH CLAIMS HE'S INNOCENT

BERNARD GRANT OF CHICAGO, CHARGED WITH MURDER, INTERVIEWED BY U. P.

GRANT SAYS HE COULD GET OUT IF HE HAD LEOPOLD AND LOEB'S LAWYERS

(By United Press) Chicago, Sept. 13.—"It's the honest to God truth, they're giving me the rope on the confession of a man that's crazy and most of it's shaky testimony. If I had half the money that Loeb and Leopold have I could hire a lot of fancy lawyers and get my friends to work and have a chance to prove it."

Bernard Grant, 19-year old youth sentenced to hang October 17 in connection with the murder of Patrolman Ralph Souders during a holdup in December, 1922, thus unburdened himself to the United Press today in the visitor's room of the Cook county jail.

"I don't hold no hard feelings against those two. They're good fellows and I am glad to see them go to the big house instead of swinging. But I don't think I've had a fair break."

"They confessed and pleaded guilty and spent a lot of money hiring fine lawyers. They got off with going to prison."

"I didn't have anything to do with the murder. All I did was get tied up with it because some of the policemen had seen me around the street corners and said I was a little wild."

There is nothing of the super-intellectual in Grant. He has no horde of powerful friends. Anyone of a thousand youths in the back of the yards district where he was born and raised and got what education he has received would look just like him.

Thin, almost underfed, he looks at the visitor almost pleadingly. In his gray eyes there is an obvious fear of the gallows.

"Yes, I'm nervous," he confessed. "It isn't long until October 17, when you think of what's coming."

"Now that these boys have got off there may be someone who will pay a little attention to my case. Maybe the money that helped them will help me too."

"You know, I was never arrested before. Well, I did get fined $5 once for walking past the color line during the race riots. But I never did get pulled up for anything serious."

"It's the honest to God truth, I didn't do that murder. All I want is an even chance to prove it."

"I never had any education and no chances. If I had, you can bet I wouldn't be here, and if I had got into a fix like this I'd stand a better chance to get out."

"I was born down here in Chicago on South Halstead street. I had to leave when I was only 14. My father lost both legs in a railroad accident and walks on artificial legs and crutches."

"Up until the time I was taken up I worked and helped support my mother."

Walter Krauser, 19, who confessed to the murder of the policeman, involved Grant.

Krauser afterward retracted his statement involving Grant, Attorney E. Swanson, appearing for the latter, declares.

Swanson is preparing a petition calling upon Governor Small to commute the sentence.

Old English Custom

A maiden assize once meant an assize where no criminal was left for execution. Upon such an occasion, the judge was entitled to a pair of white gloves. A modern session of the English court of assize at which no prisoner is tried is known as a maiden assize, and it is customary for the sheriff of the county to present the judge with a pair of white gloves as a symbol of the innocent character of his administration.

If It's Pretty Hosiery You Want Murphy's Have Them

A WOMAN'S HOSIERY is an accurate basis of judgment as to her fastidiousness and taste in clothes. The past season, hosiery has acquired a still greater importance, and more attention has been paid to it than ever before. This is because good taste has proclaimed colored hose a necessary part of the wardrobe, and more care must be taken in their selection. Women have learned to know Gordon Hose, and to appreciate the "value received" in the service and satisfaction they get from them.

Old English Custom
A maiden assize once meant an assize where no criminal was left for execution. Upon such an occasion, the judge was entitled to a pair of white gloves. A modern session of the English court of assize at which no prisoner is tried is known as a maiden assize, and it is customary for the sheriff of the county to present the judge with a pair of white gloves as a symbol of the innocent character of his administration.

If It's Pretty Hosiery You Want Murphy's Have Them

A WOMAN'S HOSIERY is an accurate basis of judgment as to her fastidiousness and taste in clothes. The past season, hosiery has acquired a still greater importance, and more attention has been paid to it than ever before. This is because good taste has proclaimed colored hose a necessary part of the wardrobe, and more care must be taken in their selection. Women have learned to know Gordon Hosiery, and to appreciate the "value received" in the service and satisfaction they get from them.

Special for Saturday—Silk Hose, all good shades, only 98c a pair.

Marriage or Luxury?

She had everything that any woman's mind can wish or heart desire—but without Love.

She wanted Love—that great, sweeping, all-embracing Love—A genuine home with her Man and his children. She had to choose and freely made her choice. Then Fate—

Just one of the little things that make everyday life big with tragedy—

Fate brushes in, and Love again is denied, and luxury becomes even more unbearable.

A story that pictures the tremendous influence of little things in our daily lives with a clearness and sharpness that is startling in its realism.

SEED CORN SITUATION

FARM crops specialists of the University of Minnesota foresee a perplexing seed corn situation in Minnesota in 1925. The belated spring and cool summer have kept the corn crop weeks behind its normal schedule, so that comparatively little mature corn is likely to be gathered this year.

The specialists point out that in the spring of 1918, after the soft corn year of 1917, good seed corn was hard to get even at $10 a bushel. Repetition of the conditions experienced then, perhaps even worse, are feared for the next corn planting season.

Prof. A. C. Arny, who is in charge of farm crops at the University Farm, says that seed corn of vigorous and high germination may be obtained from ears that have reached the dough stage only, provided they are dried out under proper conditions. When kernels of the corn are about the consistency of thin bread dough they are said to be in the dough stage. Mr. Arny also points out that the more mature corn husked before or immediately after the first killing frost can also be used for seed if properly handled.

Imported seed corn is not used to Minnesota climate and it will take years of planting to bring such corn up to the value of our home grown article. There lies the importance of maintaining a supply of the home grown seed corn.

THE PAVING AMENDMENT

THE charter commission, by submitting the amendment suggested by the council for the approval of the voters at the November election, took a step which if ratified by the voters will make more paving possible.

In writing the present charter chapter on finance a provision was incorporated, the intention of which was to safeguard the funds relative to paving. The conditions under which it was supposed to operate have changed somewhat and the council's experience has shown that it should be simplified and in this the charter commission agreed.

This does not increase the amount of certificates of indebtedness the council may issue, but it makes the work of issuing the paving certificates much simpler. It would seem that these amendments should be ratified which would permit the council to get at the plans for next year's paving at an early date. It will also permit those property owners who wish paving on their streets to discuss the matter with each other and make the request of the council early in the year. There is not a great amount of paving desired, but some property owners want that little quite as much as if it were miles they needed.

WILD BULL WAS TAMED

WE had an idea that Firpo would make short work of Wills at Jersey City, and would have bet on the Argentinian. But he is no longer the "Wild Bull." Wills, the New Orleans stevedore, showed his science and made the wild swinger from the Pampas country look like a second-rater.

Firpo's blows lacked steam, they failed to hit their mark, and he spent the major portion of his time clinching. Firpo was beaten in every round. Wills pounded Firpo's stomach, his sides and his ribs until the ceaseless tattoo caused Luis to yell "hi hi" at every clinch. It is claimed that Firpo will be sore in his body for days after the fight.

Firpo's home town in South America received the news in dazed fashion. The only consolation drawn was that their idol was not knocked out. As news this fight received more mention than the Chinese civil war. It even over-shadowed politics on the day it occurred.

BACK TO THE CANDLE ERA

BRAINERD slipped back to the candle era last night. From 6 to 7 it was lights out so far as electricity was concerned. Thereafter electric service continued weak and anemic. About 9:30 o'clock the light went out again and failed completely the rest of the night.

Theatres issued checks to spectators who had their evening's enjoyment curtailed. Candles, flashlights and matches illuminated the interior of the New Park and the Lyceum theatres.

Next Monday night the New Park will show one of the greatest musical extravaganzas Brainerd has ever witnessed and heard. It is hoped our power company will show sufficient energy to keep the current on. LeComte & Flesher will brook no excuses, but will demand uninterrupted current.

The breakdown last night was an unusual one. A light, misty rain was falling and there wasn't a single flash of lightning, no thunder was heard, no wind was present.

ALVAH EASTMAN of the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press slips by with a safety razor joke when he penned these lines: "Fred H. Gillett, for several terms speaker of congress, won the Republican nomination for United States senator in Massachusetts, receiving as many votes as did his two opponents. This was no close shave for Gillett."

EAMON DE VALERA should be given a medal for persistency. He was arrested a year or more ago while making a speech. Recently released, he went back to the same old corner and finished his address. It is not known if his listeners had continued to carry the thread of thought or train of ideas.

WHEN General Dawes makes a political speech, he gets down to brass tacks. There are no "ifs" and "buts" and "maybes", etc. The general has faced too many situations in his life which required real action and not visionary essays, to spend much time in visionary speculation and idle dreaming.

THE round-the-world fliers are having their last hops over the United States delayed by orders holding them for Defense Day celebrations, etc.

INCLEMENT weather cut down Defense Test recruiting and parades.

Y. M. C. A. DRIVE FOR FINANCES

Luncheon for Solicitors Held Monday Noon at the Methodist Church

CHURCH LADIES HOSTESSES

It is Expected 25 Solicitors Will be at Luncheon to Perfect Plans to Gain Funds and Members

The opening guns of the Y. M. C. A. financial drive, will be fired at a luncheon for solicitors to be held on Monday noon at the Methodist church. This luncheon is given by the Y. M. C. A., and is furnished by the ladies of the Methodist church.

It is expected that about twenty-five solicitors will be present at this luncheon, the purpose of which is to perfect plans and make all preliminary arrangements for the campaign, which will be conducted to secure both funds for carrying on the "Y" work this year, and for new members for the association.

These solicitors are recruited from the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A., the Lions and Rotary clubs and from Northern Pacific shopmen.

It has been estimated that at least two thousand dollars will be needed, and this amount has been set as the goal for the campaign. It is planned to make the drive a three-day intensive campaign, and Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week have been chosen as the days. It is probable that the campaign will be launched with another luncheon on Wednesday noon.

RAINS BENEFIT ALL OUR ROADS

The rains of the past week have been of much benefit to roads in this territory, said County Highway Engineer, Walter M. Murphy, who states that Sunday motorists will find much improvements in the county roads unless there should be heavy rains before tomorrow.

Maintenance men have been taking advantage of the wet weather and have been working the highways every day this week. Those that were bumpy and rough on last Sunday have been placed in good condition, and are said to be in very good travelable shape.

Following is Mr. Murphy's weekly report of the roads under his supervision:

State Road No. 3. (Brainerd, Merrifield, Cross Lake, Emily). This road which was made very rough by last Sunday's rains, is now in very good condition, its entire length. Brainerd to Merrifield, new construction, but in excellent shape, Merrifield to Cross Lake, very good, next two miles is a sand trail, but improved by the rains. Balance of road to Emily, very good.

State Road No. 2. (Dewey highway through southern part of county).

15 New Studebakers

Including an entirely new type of car—the DUPLEX-PHAETON

Today Studebaker has made Automobile History and established standards of value and quality more fully and obviously than ever before.

TODAY Studebaker proves that beautiful, distinctive, stylish body lines can be originated by American body designers without following precedent or imitating or adapting what has been done before.

Today Studebaker proves that a practical and beautiful type of car can be made to combine the pleasure and performance of the open car and the comfort and protection of the closed car—and this without excessive price or compromised quality—a car "duplex" in open-car smartness and convenience and closed-car elegance and comfort—and at a price no higher than that of an open car!

Today Studebaker proves, in its new Standard Six Duplex model, that a six-cylinder car of fine quality, great power, plenty of room and impressive appearance can be made and marketed at a price of $1145.

Today Studebaker proves in its new Special Six and its Big Six Duplex models that the ultimate in all the essential features of quality in five- and seven-passenger cars can be made and marketed at a price of $1495 and $1875 respectively.

And this is possible only because Studebaker cars are made in one of the most comprehensive industrial plants in this country, 70 per cent of which is new within the last six years.

Every modern method of manufacture and long experienced management are available for the production of Studebaker automobiles.

Today Studebaker proves that the highest grade closed car bodies—framed in selected hard woods, cushioned with the best cushion work, upholstered in fine mohair fabrics and fitted with expensive appointments—can be made and marketed on superlatively good chassis at moderate prices.

This is made possible by the new $10,000,000 Studebaker closed body plants. Studebaker designs and builds all of its closed bodies in one of the best equipped and most modern body plants in the industry.

The Three New Chassis

THE STUDEBAKER STANDARD SIX—113 in. wheelbase, 5-passenger. Engine, 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 4 $\frac{1}{2}$, 50 b.h.p.—with 5 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Duplex-Roadster, Coupe-Roadster, Coupe, Sedan, and Berline.

THE STUDEBAKER SPECIAL SIX—120 in. wheelbase, 5-passenger. Engine, 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 5, 65 b.h.p.—with 5 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Duplex-Roadster, Victoria, Sedan, and Berline.

THE STUDEBAKER BIG SIX—127 in. wheelbase, 7-passenger. Engine, 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ x 5, 75 b.h.p.—with 4 different bodies, including Duplex-Phaeton, Coupe, Sedan, and Berline.

The Ten New Closed Bodies

COMPLETELY NEW BODIES—each car a masterly expression of modern style, yet distinctly

Three completely new chassis!... 15 completely new bodies!

Completely new lines!... Marvelous new performance

Completely new open-closed car!

Completely new radiators, new fenders, new lamps, new seating comfort, new finish, new colors in lacquer finish, three improved engines

Real balloon tires, not low-pressure cords. Sizes—21"x 5.25" to 20"x 7.30".

New Studebaker automatic hydraulic 4-wheel brakes—optional

New values, never before equaled—even by Studebaker!

original in beautiful lines—individual, conservative, impressively elegant, but crisp enough in its departure from imitation to be entirely distinctive.

The Five New Duplex Bodies

(A new type of car originated by Studebaker to take the place of the open car)

SO ENTIRELY NEW and so different from any other body ever made before that a new name had to be created—the DUPLEX.

The upper structure is shaped in pressed steel and covered with the finest water-proof fabric. The steel construction permits the use of another radical Studebaker creation, the new roller enclosing curtains. There is the permanent beauty and durability of the steel top plus the instant convenience of the roller curtains.

Thus Studebaker engineers have solved the open-closed car problem.

The buyer who wants the airiness and practical convenience of the open car and who also wants the comfort, protection and beauty of the closed car can now get both in one car and at the price of an open car.

One moment the new Studebaker Duplex is a beautiful open car—a touch of the hand to the overlapping roller curtains and it is a snug weather-tight closed car.

Balloon Tires

Genuine and full size balloon tires on all models. Every part that functions with the tires has been specially designed for balloon tire equipment—steering gear, steering knuckles, spindles and springs, even the fenders.

New Lacquer Finish

The Standard Six closed bodies are beautifully finished in semi-glaze, satin lacquer. The hood and lower panels are in light gray, the upper panels in darker gray. Hairline parallel striping in oriental red. Burnished nickel radiators, jet black fenders, light golden finished, natural wood wheels and big balloon tires are contrasting touches.

The Standard Duplex Models are finished in glossy jet enamel—lasting, lustrous and wear-resisting.

The Special Six and the Big Six Duplex models are in soft satin lacquer with dark blue hoods and bodies striped in light blue and ivory. Here, too, the sparkle is added with burnished nickel radiators and light, natural wood wheels in contrast with jet black fenders and big, black balloon tires.

More Power

The universally famous Studebaker engine is more than ever a peer among power plants. The crankshaft is heavier. ALL surfaces are perfectly machined to exact dimensions and balance. The bearings are larger.

The engine is in unit with the clutch and transmission. There is a force feed lubrication system with clean, strained oil always in reserve. There are many changes and improvements which result in MORE POWER, MORE QUIETNESS and SMOOTHNESS and STILL BETTER PERFORMANCE in every way.

New Brakes

Larger, more powerful, simpler and much easier operated two-wheel brakes. An entirely new emergency brake is operated from the instrument board, instantly convenient to the driver's hand where it simplifies the control and frees the floor board from the old style lever. It acts on the propeller shaft. There is uniform pressure at each wheel—equalized through the rear axle.

The regular two-wheel Studebaker brakes with their simplicity, safety and great braking power are entirely adequate.

But Studebaker 4-Wheel Hydraulic Brakes (with disc wheels) can be furnished as optional equipment on all models at extra charge if desired.

Studebaker 4-Wheel Brakes have three exclusive features not found on any other system in this country.

1. Braking pressure is furnished by hydraulic power automatically developed. A light touch to the braking pedal controls its great force like a touch to the throttle controls the power of the engine. This feature will appeal instantly to women.

2. The front wheels cannot lock.

3. There are only two adjustments required—one at each rear wheel. The front brakes are permanently adjusted at the factory. The oil in the transmission is used to generate the hydraulic power; the action of the gears and the pump keep it in circulation; it cannot congeal or freeze. Braking power is always instantly ready—in winter as well as in summer!

New Ease of Operation

New Ease of Gear Shifting—New power in braking, a touch to the pedal exerts a giant's strength at the rear wheels—New clutch action, soft as velvet—A new steering gear and steering knuckles designed for balloon tires—A new grouping on the dash, including ALL the usual instruments plus a gasoline gauge that always works accurately.

Lighting Control Switches—all on the steering wheel—Instantly handy.

Automatic Spark Control—No manual attention required, so the lever is eliminated. Automatically governed to all speeds with the precision of machinery.

And the Details

The new cars are longer and lower to the ground. The line from the radiator to the rear is nearly straight. The wheelbase of all models is increased.

The fenders are much wider and deeper crowned to cover the width of the tires. They fit more closely over the wheels. The rear fenders are long and gracefully curved into the running boards.

The radiators are high and set low in the frames and convex curved just below the filler cap. The design is strikingly original and beautifully distinctive.

Entirely new head lamps and cowl parking lamps designed by Studebaker—artistically appropriate and in perfect keeping with the originality of the body and fender design.

Deeper, stiffer frames, more cross members; shorter, flatter springs for balloon tires. All bodies lower, all roomier, better and more comfortably cushioned. Seats are lower, backs and sides are higher.

Look Forward Into Next Year

The new Studebaker is here today! And no matter how sweeping your ideas of what a new model should be this car will satisfy you. It will thrill you with the very newness and originality of its beautiful lines!

You may not be in the market now, or even this year. But to see the new Studebaker is to look forward into next year—and the year after! SEE IT TODAY!

A Romance of the Spanish Main CAPTAIN BLOOD By RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini.

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Peter Blood a young Irish physician, is arrested as a Monmouth rebel by soldiers of King James and sentenced to death by the bloody Lord Jeffreys. The King, however, realizing the need of man power in the colonies, orders the rebels-convict sent to the Barbadoes to be sold as slaves. Blood and his friend Jeremy Pitt, with fifty others, are shipped to Bridgetown. There Colonel Bishop, military commander, at the behest of his niece, Arabella Bishop, purchased Blood for ten pounds when he learns that he is a skilled physician. Arabella offers her friendship to Blood but in hisown bitterness over the cruelty of his position he does not at first understand the true character of Arabella. Later he comes to know her true worth. A Spanish galleon commanded by Don Diego de Espinosa y Valdez attacks Bridgetown and the Spaniards sack the city. Blood saves Mary Trill from a Spanish ruffian and sends her and Arabella to safety back of the town. He then marshals his fellow rebels-convict together and they capture the galleon while the crew is feasting and ravaging the city.

Crouching low, they glided, noiseless as shadows, to the quarter-deck rail, and thence slipped without sound down into the waist. In the vessel's waist they hung awhile, until Mr. Blood had satisfied himself that no other sentinel showed above decks but that inconvenient fellow in the prow. Their first attention must be to him. Mr. Blood, himself, crept forward with two companions, leaving the others in the charge of that Nathaniel Hagthorpe whose sometime commission in the King's Navy gave him the best title to this office.

Mr. Blood's absence was brief. When he rejoined his comrades there was no watch above the Spaniards'

A courtly gentleman met Colonel Bishop.

decks. Meanwhile the revellers below continued to make merry at their ease in the conviction of complete security. Suddenly out of an uncouth pack of savages that beset them, stepped a slim, tall fellow with light-blue eyes in a tawny face, eyes in which glinted the light of a wicked humour. He addressed them in the purest Castilian.

"You will save yourselves pain and trouble by regarding yourselves my prisoners and suffering yourselves to be quietly bestowed out of harm's way."

"Name of God!" swore the gunner, which did no justice at all to an amazement beyond expression.

"If you please," said Mr. Blood, and thereupon those gentlemen of Spain were induced without further trouble beyond a musket prod or two to drop through a scuttle to the deck below.

It was soon after sunrise that the rebel-convict who paced the quarter-deck in Spanish corselet and head-piece, a Spanish musket on his shoulder announced the approach of a boat. It was Don Diego de Espinosa y Valdez coming aboard with four great treasure-chests, containing each twenty-five thousand pieces of eight, the ransom delivered to him at dawn by Governor Steed. He was accompanied by his son, Don Esteban, and by six men who took the oars.

Don Diego mounted the ladder and stepped upon the deck, alone, and entirely unsuspecting. Before he could even look round, and survey this guard drawn up to receive him, a tap over the head with a capstan bar efficiently handled by Hagthorpe put him to sleep without the least fuss. He was carried away to his cabin, whilst the treasure-chests, handled by the men he had left in the boat, were being hauled to the deck. That being satisfactorily accomplished, Don Esteban and the fellows who had manned the boat came up the ladder, one by one, to be handled with the same quiet efficiency.

With Colonel Bishop at their head, and gout-ridden Governor Steed sitting on the ruins of a wall beside him, survivors on shore glumly watched the departure of the eight boats containing the weary Spanish ruffians who had glutted themselves with rapine, murder and violence unspcakable.

The boats pulled away from the shore, with their loads of laughing, jeering Spaniards, who were still flinging taunts across the water at their surviving victims. They had come midway between the wharf and the ship, when suddenly the air was shaken by the boom of a gun. A round shot struck the water within a fathom of the foremost boat, sending a shower of spray over its occupants. A second shot came to crumple one of the boats into splinters, flinging its crew, dead and living, into the water.

The resolute Ogle was making excellent practice, and fully justifying his claims to know something of gunnery. In their consternation the Spaniards had simplified his task by huddling their boats together.

If the Spaniards understood nothing of all this, the forlorn islanders ashore understood still less, until to help their wits they saw the flag of Spain come down from the mainmast of the Cinco Llagas, and the flag of England soar to its empty place. Ogle, however, continued to give proof that his knowledge of gunnery was not of yesterday. After the fleeing Spaniards went his shot, and its remains were buried under a shower of loosened masonry.

The mystery of the succour that had come at the eleventh hour to wreak vengeance upon the Spaniards and to preserve for the island the extortionate ransom of a hundred thousand pieces of eight, remained yet to be probed. That the Cinco Llagas was now in friendly hands could no longer be doubted after the proofs it had given. It remained to ascertain the precise identity of these mysterious saviours and do them fitting honor. Upon this errand went Colonel Bishop as the Governor's deputy, attended by two officers.

As he stepped from the ladder into the vessel's waist, the Colonel beheld there, beside the main hatch, the four treasure-chests, the contents of one of which had been contributed almost entirely by himself. Ranged on either side, athwart the deck, stood a score of men in two well-ordered files, with breasts and backs of steel, polished Spanish morions on their heads, overshadowing their faces, and muskets ordered at their sides.

A courtly gentleman advanced to greet him—a lean, graceful gentleman, dressed in the Spanish fashion, all in black with silver lace, a gold-hilted sword dangling beside him from a gold embroidered baldric, a broad castor with a sweeping plume set above carefully curled ringlets of deepest black.

"Be welcome aboard the Cinco Llagas, Colonel, darling," a voice vaguely familiar addressed the planter.

"Peter Blood! Was it you then . . . ?"

"Myself it was—myself and these, my good friends and yours."

"Gad's my life!" he crowed on a note of foolish jubilation. "And it was with these fellows that you took the Spaniard and turned the tables on those dogs! As Gad's my life, you deserve well for this."

"I am entirely of your opinion," said Mr. Blood. "The question is how well we deserve, and how grateful shall we find you?"

"Why—his excellency shall write home an account of your exploit, and maybe some portion of your sentences shall be remitted."

"The generosity of King James is well known," sneered Nathaniel Hagthorpe, who was standing by, and amongst the ranged rebels-convict some one ventured to laugh.

And one intervened—the brawny, one-eyed Wolverstone, less mercifully disposed than his more generously fellow-convict.

"String him up from the yard-arm," he cried. Mr. Blood turned.

"If you please, Wolverstone," said he. "I conduct affairs in my own way. That is the pact. You'll please to remember it." His eyes looked along the ranks, making it plain that he addressed them all. "I desire that Colonel Bishop should have his life. One reason is that I require him as a hostage. If ye insist on hanging him, ye'll have to hang me with him, or in the alternative I'll go ashore."

Service Motto

That the high standards of Northern Pacific passenger service are appreciated by the traveling public is proved by this letter written to Harry A. Glen, D. P. and P. A. of the Northern Pacific at Yakima, Wash., by H. Stanley Coffin, president of the Yakima Rotary Club:

"Dear Mr. Glen: Having just returned from a six weeks' trip extending over the eastern states and Canada, I feel that I should write you complimenting you on the splendid service we enjoyed on your 'North Coast Limited' which we took out of Chicago for Yakima."

"As you know I am president of our Rotary Club and have just attended as a delegate our international convention at Toronto, going from there on to Montreal and Quebec, and then south through the eastern states. I want to tell you that from Chicago to Yakima on your 'North Coast Limited' we had by far the best service enjoyed on our trip, especially the dining car service. We received the best of food at the most reasonable prices and always the most courteous attention. In Rotary, you know we go a lot on 'Service,' and your dining car service certainly exemplified that word."

"It is surprising. I drove the car (Willys-Knight Sedan) at all speeds up to 50 miles an hour and found absolutely no vibration."

W. E. Best

Works Manager, Remington Cash Register

"The smoothness of the motor was a revelation. The driver increased the speed from 15 miles an hour to approximately 45 miles and, as far as I could detect, with no vibration. It would seem that the balancer is doing the trick and gives six-cylinder operation as far as smoothness is concerned."

"From the demonstration there is no doubt that the elimination of the inherent harmonic vibration, by means of the rotating balancer, has been attained in practice to a degree which is very satisfactory to the passenger."

A Romance of the Spanish Main

CAPTAIN BLOOD

By RAFAEL SABATINI

Copyrighted, 1922, by Rafael Sabatini.

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Vitaphone picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, is an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

SYNOPSIS

Peter Blood a young Irish physician, is arrested as a Monmouth rebel by soldiers of King James and sentenced to death by the bloody Lord Jeffreys. The King, however, realizing the need of man power in the colonies, orders the rebels-convict sent to the Barbadoes to be sold as slaves. Blood and his friend Jeremy Pitt, with fifty others, are shipped to Bridgetown. There Colonel Bishop, military commander, at the behest of his niece, Arabella Bishop, purchased Blood for ten pounds when he learns that he is a skilled physician. Arabella offers her friendship to Blood but in his own bitterness over the cruelty of his position he does not at first understand the true character of Arabella. Later he comes to know her true worth. A Spanish galleon commanded by Don Diego de Espinosa y Valdez attacks Bridgetown and the Spaniards sack the city. Blood saves Mary Traill from a Spanish ruffian and sends her and Arabella to safety back of the town. He then marshals his fellow rebels-convict together and they capture the galleon while the crew is feasting and ravaging the city.

Crouching low, they glided, noiseless as shadows, to the quarter-deck rail, and thence slipped without sound down into the waist. In the vessel's waist they hung awhile, until Mr. Blood had satisfied himself that no other sentinel showed above decks but that inconvenient fellow in the prow. Their first attention must be to him. Mr. Blood, himself, crept forward with two companions, leaving the others in the charge of that Nathaniel Hagthorpe whose sometime commission in the King's Navy gave him the best title to this office.

Mr. Blood's absence was brief. When he rejoined his comrades there was no watch above the Spaniards'

handled with the same quiet efficiency.

With Colonel Bishop at their head, and gout-ridden Governor Steed sitting on the ruins of a wall beside him, survivors on shore glumly watched the departure of the eight boats containing the weary Spanish ruffians who had glutted themselves with rapine, murder and violence unrepeatable.

The boats pulled away from the shore, with their loads of laughing, jeering Spaniards, who were still flinging taunts across the water at their surviving victims. They had come midway between the wharf and the ship, when suddenly the air was shaken by the boom of a gun. A round shot struck the water within a fathom of the foremost boat, sending a shower of spray over its occupants. A second shot came to crumple one of the boats into splinters, flinging its crew, dead and living, into the water.

The resolute Ogle was making excellent practice, and fully justifying his claims to know something of gunnery. In their consternation the Spaniards had simplified his task by huddling their boats together.

If the Spaniards understood nothing of all this, the forlorn islanders ashore understood still less, until to help their wits they saw the flag of Spain come down from the mainmast of the Cinco Llagas, and the flag of England soar to its empty place. Ogle, however, continued to give proof that his knowledge of gunnery was not of yesterday. After the fleeing Spaniards went his shot, and the last of their boats flew into splinters as it touched the wharf, and its remains were buried under a shower of loosened masonry.

The mystery of the succor that had come at the eleventh hour to wreak vengeance upon the Spaniards and to preserve for the island the extortionate ransom of a hundred thousand pieces of eight, remained yet to be probed. That the Cinco Llagas was now in friendly hands could no longer be doubted after the proofs it had given. It remained to ascertain the precise identity of these mysterious saviours and do them fitting honor. Upon this errand went Colonel Bishop as the Governor's deputy, attended by two officers.

As he stepped from the ladder into the vessel's waist, the Colonel beheld there, beside the main hatch, the four treasure-chests, the contents of one of which had been contributed almost entirely by himself. Rangé on either side, athwart the deck, stood a score of men in two well-ordered files, with breasts and backs of steel, polished Spanish morions on their heads, overshadowing their faces, and muskets ordered at their sides.

A courtly gentleman advanced to greet him—a lean, graceful gentleman, dressed in the Spanish fashion, all in black with silver lace, a gold-bitted sword dangling beside him from a gold embroidered baldric, a broad castor with a sweeping plume set above carefully curled ringlets of deepest black.

"Be welcome aboard the Cinco Llagas, Colonel, darling," a voice vaguely familiar addressed the planter.

"Peter Blood! Was it you then . . . ?"

"Myself it was—myself and these, my good friends and yours."

"God's my life!" he crowed on a note of foolish jubilation. "And it was with these fellows that you took the Spaniard and turned the tables on those dogs! As God's my life, you deserve well for this."

"Why—his excellency shall write home an account of your exploit, and maybe some portion of your sentences shall be remitted."

"The generosity of King James is well known," sneered Nathaniel Hagthorpe, who was standing by, and amongst the ranged rebels-convict some one ventured to laugh.

And one intervened—the brawny, one-eyed Wolverstone, less mercifully disposed than his more genlemanly fellow-convict.

"String him up from the yard-arm," he cried. Mr. Blood turned. "If you please, Wolverstone," said he. "I conduct affairs in my own way. That is the pact. You'll please to remember it." His eyes looked along the ranks, making it plain that he addressed them all. "I desire that Colonel Bishop should have his life. One reason is that I require him as a hostage. If ye insist on hanging him, ye'll have to hang me with him, or in the alternative I'll go ashore."

decks. Meanwhile the revellers below continued to make merry at their ease in the conviction of complete security. Suddenly out of an uncouth pack of savages that beset them, stepped a slim, tall fellow with light-blue eyes in a tawny face, eyes in which glinted the light of a wicked humour. He addressed them in the purest Castilian.

"You will save yourselves pain and trouble by regarding yourselves my prisoners and suffering yourselves to be quietly bestowed out of harm's way."

"Name of God!" swore the gunner, which did no justice at all to an amazement beyond expression.

"If you please," said Mr. Blood, and thereupon those gentlemen of Spain were induced without further trouble beyond a musket prod or two to drop through a scuttle to the deck below.

It was soon after sunrise that the rebel-convict who paced the quarter-deck in Spanish corselet and head-piece, a Spanish musket on his shoulder announced the approach of a boat. It was Don Diego de Espinosa y Valdez coming aboard with four great treasure-chests, containing each twenty-five thousand pieces of eight, the ransom delivered to him at dawn by Governor Steed. He was accompanied by his son, Don Esteban, and by six men who took the oars.

Don Diego mounted the ladder and stepped upon the deck, alone, and entirely unsuspecting. Before he could even look round, and survey this guard drawn up to receive him, a tap over the head with a capstan bar efficiently handled by Hagthorpe put him to sleep without the least fuss. He was carried away to his cabin, whilst the treasure-chests, handled by the men he had left in the boat, were being hauled to the deck. That being satisfactorily accomplished, Don Esteban and the fellows who had manned the boat came up the ladder, one by one, to be

100 MEN IN ANSWER TO CALL

Adjutant of Local Post of American Legion

WEATHER MARRED THE DAY

Because of the Rain Parade Scheduled for Defense Test Day Was Not Carried Out

About one hundred men answered the call to mobilize in Brainerd on Friday afternoon, National Defense Day, according to C. C. Davis, adjutant of the local post of the American Legion.

It is thought that this number would have been materially increased if the weather had been more element. But a drizzling rain all of Friday afternoon, and especially during the hours from four to six o'clock while the mobilization was being carried on, put a damper on the work.

Because of the rain the parade which was scheduled for five o'clock was cancelled, as was also the short program which the committee from the American Legion had planned.

Major Charles H. Scheuer, in charge of the mobilization, was somewhat disappointed that more local citizens did not answer the mobilization call. It was hoped that 250 men might have been recruited for Company B. of the 44th Engineer Battalion, and 150 men for the Remount Station No. 45.

Brainerd business houses recognized the day by placing their American flags at the curb, and the downtown section presented a very fine, patriotic appearance as a result. The Brainerd Elks, the Rotary and the Lions clubs were prepared to march in the parade had it been possible to include this part of the program.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Washington-Lincoln Association Will Have a Meeting Tuesday Afternoon at Lincoln Building

The Washington-Lincoln parent teacher association will have a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the Lincoln building. Several items of interest will be discussed and everybody is urged to be present. The report of the Child Welfare meeting held last spring will be given; there will also be present a representative of the Rotary club to give a talk. Lunch will be served.

PEONY DELIVERY

Four Roots to be Placed in Bag, Each Labeled Giving Its Name

Many interested in buying peonies are asking how they will be delivered. It is the intention of the committee to place the four roots in a bag with each one labeled giving its name. These will be in some central place and delivered to those who have receipts showing that they have given their orders. The first peonies will go to those who give their orders early and pay cash with the order.

The danger threatening the success of the campaign is that those who are to secure orders in their yards may fail to appreciate the necessity of their working. Work only will make the campaign a success. "Now is the time for those who have the interest of their section of the city in mind and who want to have lots of blooms when the peonies bloom must work now so the committee says.

West Brainerd residents will meet the first of the week to plan to sell their quota and the south side of the city are planning their work. Much interest is being shown as to which ward will sell the most peonies.

The Rotary club hopes that every resident, who wishes Brainerd to be "the peony city" of Minnesota, will purchase at least one lot.

REBEKAH LODGE ANNIVERSARY

73rd Birthday to be Observed by the Local Order on Monday Evening, Sept. 15th

The seventy-third anniversary of the Rebekah lodge will be observed by the local order on Monday evening, September 15th, with an entertainment to be given after the regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall.

A very fine program has been arranged, including a short play, the characters of which are local members of the lodge, and the evening will close with refreshments. A small fee will be charged.

All Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their families also friends are invited and urged to attend.

REDUCED FARE CERTIFICATES HERE

Kirk Smith, Commander Local Legion Post, Receives Same for Use of Legionnaires

FOR NATIONAL CONVENTION

May be Used Also by Widows of Deceased Members, Members of Legion Auxiliary, Etc.

Kirk Smith, commander of the local American Legion post, announces that he has received the certificates which each Legionnaire must have if he is to receive the benefit of the reduced fare on the railroads of a roundtrip at the price of the one-way fare to St. Paul, for the National convention of the American Legion.

These certificates are not alone for members of the Legion, but may also be used by widows of deceased members, children under twelve years of age, whose father is a member of the Legion or whose mother is a member of the Legion Auxiliary, and ladies who are members of this auxiliary.

The certificates may be secured from Commander Smith, who urges all eligible to use them to get them as soon as possible. Many from Brainerd are planning to attend the St. Paul convention, and those traveling by train will save quite a substantial amount in railway fare, by using these certificates.

The Brainerd delegation plans to go to St. Paul on Monday, or on the early morning train Tuesday, so that they will be on hand to participate in the big parade that will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The sixth district is to lead this parade, and the Brainerd delegation, being a part of this district, will have a prominent place in the line of march. Brainerd Legionnaires are to meet at the old capital building at 1:30 o'clock to mobilize for the parade, and every man from this city will be expected to fall in line, in order that a fine showing may be made from the Brainerd post.

ECONOMY DRUG CO. EXTENDS BUSINESS

Purchases Stock and Fixtures of the Lammon Pharmacy, Taking Possession Saturday

FRANK JOHNSON IS MANAGER

Latter is Well Known in Brainerd, Experienced in Drug Business
And Assured of Success

The Economy Drug Company, the new organization which is building the Economy building at the corner of South Sixth and Laurel streets, purchased the stock and fixtures of the Lammon Pharmacy on Friday, and took possession of that store Saturday morning.

Frank Johnson, well known Brainerd man, who has been conducting a drug store at Pequot, is manager of the Economy Drug Company. The Lammon Pharmacy will be continued under its old name until November 1st, at which time it is expected that the new building will be completed and ready for occupancy, when the name will be changed to the Economy Drug Store.

Mr. Johnson is well equipped to manage this drug store. He is well known in Brainerd, being one of the city's native sons, is a graduate of the local high school, and of the school of pharmacy of the University of Minnesota, where he made many friends, and for the past four years has conducted the Johnson Pharmacy at Pequot, which business was recently sold to its former proprietor, A. S. Rasmussen. His many friends, both in Brainerd and Pequot, will be glad to hear that he is to continue in business in this territory.

Mr. Johnson states that it is his intention to continue the staple lines carried by Mr. Lammon, also the periodical and fountain business, and expects to add several other lines to make the stock more complete.

G. E. Lammon has not definitely decided what he will do in the future. His family will continue their residence in Brainerd for the winter, at least, and he expects to assist his father, who is in ill health, in his drug store at Ridgeway, Iowa, for the present.

Mr. Lammon has built up an excellent patronage in his Brainerd store, with a reputation for honest dealing and an up-to-date stock of merchandise. Brainerd people will regret to learn that he is to leave the city.

Mr. Lammon has conducted this store for the past ten years, purchasing it from the Olander Drug Co. The stock was later increased and new fixtures added, making this one of the most modern stores of its kind in this territory.

The Economy Drug Company will continue the policies of the former owner, and will seek to serve the citizens of Brainerd and vicinity in the same satisfactory manner.

KAPPA DELPHIAN CHAPTER

Saturday, Sept. 20 at Home of Mrs. A. J. Hayes

The Kappa Delphian Chapter opens its first year of study 3 o'clock September 20, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hayes, 523 Holly street.

About twelve years ago, the Delphian movement had its beginnings in courses of study planned by universities for individuals. Today there are over one thousand chapters.

The local chapter was organized July 15, but owing to so many being out of the city, the charter is being held open until after the first meeting.

Mrs. C. D. McKay has been appointed membership secretary for a time and will be glad to explain the course of study to any one interested.

First program as follows:

Text report No. 1—"Discovery of Fire," Miss LeMay.

Text report No. 2—"Primitive Homes," Mrs. Walter Murphy.

Text report No. 3—"Use of Metals," Mrs. Vanni.

Text report No. 4—"Evolution of Food Plants," Mrs. McKay.

What Is It That Makes a Man or Women So Glad to Go Home?

Of course the first reason should be, and often is, the desire to be with those they love.

But beauty and creature comforts have a mighty influence in creating an impelling attraction for the home. Mothers and wives develop the love of others in the home by making home comfortable and beautiful.

The comfortable chair, the bright reading lamp, the phonograph, the radio, the table with its books and magazines, may be the lure for many a man. The nice furnishings, the colorful hangings and rugs, the pretty lamps may make the family take delight in having their friends come to the home for their good times, instead of going to dances or to the movies.

Home is still the place to love and be proud of, as every good wife and mother knows.

We are now able to show you the draperies which give so much warmth and color to the room. And too, cretonnes and chintzes which are used so much in making the home attractive.

AND BLANKETS AND COMFORTABLES are indispensable to a happy home. They are necessary to wholesome luxurious sleep.

THE TABLE LINENS and TOWELS satisfy the home makers pride. That is why they are so much desired as gifts. BUT the home maker may want to replenish her linen closet NOW and we have the materials she'll want.

100 MEN IN ANSWER TO CALL

Adjutant of Local Post of
American Legion

WEATHER MARRED THE DAY

Because of the Rain Parade Scheduled for Defense Test Day Was Not Carried Out

About one hundred men answered the call to mobilize in Brainerd on Friday afternoon, National Defense Day, according to C. C. Davis, adjutant of the local post of the American Legion.

It is thought that this number would have been materially increased if the weather had been more clement. But a drizzling rain all of Friday afternoon, and especially during the hours from four to six o'clock while the mobilization was being carried on, put a damper on the work.

Because of the rain the parade which was scheduled for five o'clock was cancelled, as was also the short program which the committee from the American Legion had planned.

Major Charles H. Scheuer, in charge of the mobilization, was somewhat disappointed that more local citizens did not answer the mobilization call. It was hoped that 250 men might have been recruited for Company B. of the 44th Engineer Battalion, and 150 men for the Remount Station No. 45.

Brainerd business houses recognized the day by placing their American flags at the curb, and the downtown section presented a very fine, patriotic appearance as a result. The Brainerd Elks, the Rotary and the Lions clubs were prepared to march in the parade had it been possible to include this part of the program.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Washington-Lincoln Association Will Have a Meeting Tuesday Afternoon at Lincoln Building

The Washington-Lincoln parent teacher association will have a meeting Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 at the Lincoln building. Several items of interest will be discussed and everybody is urged to be present. The report of the Child Welfare meeting held last spring will be given; there will also be present a representative of the Rotary club to give a talk. Lunch will be served.

PEONY DELIVERY

Four Roots to be Placed in Bag, Each Labeled Giving Its Name

Many interested in buying peonies are asking how they will be delivered. It is the intention of the committee to place the four roots in a bag with each one labeled giving its name. These will be in some central place and delivered to those who have receipts showing that they have given their orders. The first peonies will go to those who give their orders early and pay cash with the order.

The danger threatening the success of the campaign is that those who are to secure orders in their wards may fail to appreciate the necessity of their working. Work only will make the campaign a success. "Now is the time for those who have the interest of their section of the city in mind and who want to have lots of blooms when the peonies bloom must work now so the committee says.

West Brainerd residents will meet the first of the week to plan to sell their quota and the south side of the city are planning their work. Much interest is being shown as to which ward will sell the most peonies.

The Rotary club hopes that every resident, who wishes Brainerd to be "the peony city" of Minnesota, will purchase at least one lot.

73rd Birthday to be Observed by the Local Order on Monday Evening, Sept. 15th

The seventy-third anniversary of the Rebekah lodge will be observed by the local order on Monday evening, September 15th, with an entertainment to be given after the regular meeting in the I. O. O. F. hall.

A very fine program has been arranged, including a short play, the characters of which are local members of the lodge, and the evening will close with refreshments. A small fee will be charged.

All Rebekahs, Odd Fellows and their families also friends are invited and urged to attend.

REDUCED FARE

CERTIFICATES HERE

Kirk Smith, Commander Local Legion Post, Receives Same for Use of Legionnaires

May be Used Also by Widows of Deceased Members, Members of Legion Auxiliary, Etc.

Kirk Smith, commander of the local American Legion post, announces that he has received the certificates which each Legionnaire must have if he is to receive the benefit of the reduced fare on the railroads of a roundtrip at the price of the one-way fare to St. Paul, for the National convention of the American Legion.

These certificates are not alone for members of the Legion, but may also be used by widows of deceased members, children under twelve years of age, whose father is a member of the Legion or whose mother is a member of the Legion Auxiliary, and ladies who are members of this auxiliary.

The certificates may be secured from Commander Smith, who urges all eligible to use them to get them as soon as possible. Many from Brainerd are planning to attend the St. Paul convention, and those traveling by train will save quite a substantial amount in railway fare, by using these certificates.

The Brainerd delegation plans to go to St. Paul on Monday, or on the early morning train Tuesday, so that they will be on hand to participate in the big parade that will be held at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The sixth district is to lead this parade, and the Brainerd delegation, being a part of this district, will have a prominent place in the line of march. Brainerd Legionnaires are to meet at the old capitol building at 1:30 o'clock to mobilize for the parade, and every man from this city will be expected to fall in line, in order that a fine showing may be made from the Brainerd post.

ECONOMY DRUG CO. EXTENDS BUSINESS

Purchases Stock and Fixtures of the Lammon Pharmacy, Taking Possession Saturday

FRANK JOHNSON IS MANAGER

Latter is Well Known in Brainerd. Experienced in Drug Business And Assured of Success

The Economy Drug Company, the new organization which is building the Economy building at the corner of South Sixth and Laurel streets, purchased the stock and fixtures of the Lammon Pharmacy on Friday, and took possession of that store Saturday morning.

Frank Johnson, well known Brainerd man, who has been conducting a drug store at Pequot, is manager of the Economy Drug Company. The Lammon Pharmacy will be continued under its old name until November 1st, at which time it is expected that the new building will be completed and ready for occupancy, when the name will be changed to the Economy Drug Store.

Mr. Johnson is well equipped to manage this drug store. He is well known in Brainerd, being one of the city's native sons, is a graduate of the local high school, and of the school of pharmacy of the University of Minnesota, where he made many friends, and for the past four years has conducted the Johnson Pharmacy at Pequot, which business was recently sold to its former proprietor, A. S. Rasmussen. His many friends, both in Brainerd and Pequot, will be glad to hear that he is to continue in business in this territory.

Mr. Johnson states that it is his intention to continue the staple lines carried by Mr. Lammon, also the periodical and fountain business, and expects to add several other lines to make the stock more complete.

G. E. Lammon has not definitely decided what he will do in the future. His family will continue their residence in Brainerd for the winter at least, and he expects to assist his father, who is in ill health, in his drug store at Ridgeway, Iowa, for the present.

Mr. Lammon has built up an excellent patronage in his Brainerd store, with a reputation for honest dealing and an up-to-date stock of merchandise. Brainerd people will regret to learn that he is to leave the city.

Mr. Lammon has conducted this store for the past ten years, purchasing it from the Olander Drug Co. The stock was later increased and new fixtures added, making this one of the most modern stores of its kind in this territory.

The Economy Drug Company will continue the policies of the former owner, and will seek to serve the citizens of Brainerd and vicinity in the same satisfactory manner.

KAPPA DELPHIAN CHAPTER

Will Open Its First Year of Study Saturday, Sept. 20 at Home of Mrs. A. J. Hayes

The Kappa Delphian Chapter opens its first year of study 3 o'clock September 20, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hayes, 523 Holly street.

About twelve years ago, the Delphian movement had its beginnings in courses of study planned by universities for individuals. Today there are over one thousand chapters.

The local chapter was organized July 15, but owing to so many being out of the city, the charter is being held open until after the first meeting.

Mrs. C. D. McKay has been appointed membership secretary for a time and will be glad to explain the course of study to any one interested.

First program as follows:
Text report No. 1—"Discovery of Fire," Miss LeMay.

Text report No. 2—"Primitive Homes," Mrs. Walter Murphy.

What Is It That Makes a Man or Women So Glad to Go Home?

Of course the first reason should be, and often is, the desire to be with those they love.

But beauty and creature comforts have a mighty influence in creating an impelling attraction for the home. Mothers and wives develop the love of others in the home by making home comfortable and beautiful.

The comfortable chair, the bright reading lamp, the phonograph, the radio, the table with its books and magazines, may be the lure for many a man. The nice furnishings, the colorful hangings and rugs, the pretty lamps may make the family take delight in having their friends come to the home for their good times, instead of going to dances or to the movies.

Home is still the place to love and be proud of, as every good wife and mother knows.

We are now able to show you the draperies which give so much warmth and color to the room. And too, cretonnes and chintzes which are used so much in making the home attractive.

AND BLANKETS AND COMFORTABLES are indispensable to a happy home. They are necessary to wholesome luxurious sleep.

TILDEN'S TOYING TACTICS CRITICIZED

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 13.—It takes a master at any game to toy with his opponents until the game is almost lost and then spurt out to victory. Such a tennis master is William T. Tilden, one of the greatest, if not the best player, that ever picked up a racket.

Perhaps it is the only thrill that Tilden can get out of his tennis—to lazy along until the match point has about overtaken him and then to open up the throttle and play tennis when a momentary slip might cause his defeat.

It is well within Tilden's right and it is the privilege of any other champion in any other line to play as he chooses, but there are the feelings of others to consider as well as his own.

During the recent national championships Tilden went to extremes several times to show what a court genius and what a master of all strokes he is. He dropped a set to Manuel Alonso in one of his matches and the loss of the set was due more to Tilden's high personal regard for the Spaniard than to any superiority on the other side of the net. In another match of the tournament, he fiddled around against Howard Kinsey until the crowd became impatient and Kinsey became visibly annoyed.

Tilden is a great player. There is no doubt of that. Crowds go out to see him play and they expect to see the finest tennis that he has. He always shows the best he has, but he does it in a peculiar way. He apparently is of the opinion that he can show his class only by toying with his opponents and when he allows them to reach the danger point by opening up his game and annihilating them.

Perhaps the crowd does like to see Tilden on the court as long as possible, but that is doubtful. The crowd wants to see championship tennis, even if it is demonstrated by a love set.

Bill Johnston, the most popular player on the American court, always does his very best against every opponent. When right, he wins by allowing his opponent as few games as possible and there never has been a complaint. Other players do not complain that he tries to show them up because they know his class and they know when they take the courts that they may be fortunate to get a few games.

Tilden may feel that he is not helping to develop the game when he overwhelms less capable players. But players against him probably expect to be overwhelmed, and it is doubtful if they prefer to have a number of games handed to them and then be shown up when the champion gets ready to show how good he is.

Several of the prominent players during the recent championships criticized Tilden for showing off before the crowd at the expense and humiliation of an opponent who never had a chance to win.

AMERICA WINS
AGAIN CLASSIC
TENNIS CUPDAVIS TROPHY FOR FIFTH YEAR
IN SUCCESSION, STAYS IN THE U. S.TILDEN AND JOHNSON DEFEAT
PATTERSON AND WOOD OF AUSTRALIA

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—America retained the classic Davis cup, symbolic of the world's tennis championship, for the fifth year in succession, a new record.

The American team won the challenge round for the cup yesterday with William T. Tilden and William M. Johnston defeating Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood, the Australian challengers, in the doubles match at the Germantown Cricket club. The Australians cannot win even if they take the two remaining singles matches today.

YOST DRAWS STARS
FROM ALL CLIMES

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 13.—Michigan's football squad will be made up of 63 players when preliminary practice starts Sept. 15. Of this number, over half, or 32, of them are natives of the Wolverine state.

That speaks quite well for scholastic football as it is played in Michigan, considering that aspirants for the Maize and Blue eleven hail from practically every state above the Mason and Dixon line and as far west as the coast. Eight of the candidates come from Detroit, where 11 high schools have aided them in making ready for a trial on a big university team. The others are scattered all around the commonwealth.

Ohio claims six, Illinois four and Minnesota and Indiana one each. From New York states comes William Heath, a backfield prospect, while Kentucky is represented by Edliff Slaughter of Louisville, star line-man for the past two seasons. C. J. Munz, an end from Denver, Colo., is quite a distance from home and Canada boasts one candidate for gridiron honors in M. H. Shatz, a back from Toronto.

DODGERS CLIMB
AS CARDINALS
DEFEAT GIANTS

New York, Sept. 13.—The Giants got their first dose of western medicine yesterday and as a result their temperature decreased to the danger mark. While Brooklyn remained idle, the Cardinals plastered the Giants, 5 to 1.

Pittsburgh continued its snail-like pace to overtake the leaders by defeating the Boston Braves, 5 to 4. The standing of the leaders in the National league follows:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.	To play
New York	84	55	.604	15
Brooklyn	85	56	.603	13
Pittsburgh	80	56	.588	18

The complexion of the American league remained unchanged yesterday, the three leaders spending the day traveling.

WHITNEY'S HORSE,
MOTHER GOOSE,
WINS FUTURITY

Belmont Park, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Harry Payne Whitney's 2-year-old Mother Goose, won the $75,000 futurity stakes here this afternoon, defeating a field of 29 starters.

Barbara Bronell, famous dancer starring in the musical sensation, "My China Doll," which will be presented at the New Park Theatre, Monday night, Sept. 15th. Miss Bronell is a dancer of international fame, having toured the world with Julian Eltinge and company and is making her second tour of the states in her new starring vehicle.

She is known as the "girl who defied Broadway." To the White Way, the name Barbara Bronell is known only by hearsay. Yet in defiance of all precedent and law theatrical, Barbara Bronell has risen to fame. Literally she has danced her way around the world, and without ever so much as stopping to dance in New York, and allow that critical audience a glance at her dancing toes. All the rules of the wisecracks, and all the standards of the successful artists, who have gone before and achieved stardom, and their name writ in electric, by their clever footwork, have been toppled over and laughed at by this dainty twenty-two year old girl. Today, without ever gracing a board in New York City, Barbara Bronell is considered, by managers and audiences alike, the "cleverest dancer in America."

She appears in "My China Doll" at the New Park Monday night, September 15.

Amazing Voyage in Films
Julius Verne won fame by his story "Around the World in Eighty Days." It took the "Speejaacks" party sixteen months to accomplish the same feat, but then the facts of the case were different.

The "Speejaacks" is a 98-foot motor launch owned and captained by Albert Y. Gowen, Commodore of the Cleveland Yacht club. Its trip to the farthest corners of the earth is one of the most amazing human experiences on record. The Paramount picturization of the voyage, "Around the World in the Speejaacks," which was shown for the first time at the Lyceum Theatre last night and which is showing again tonight, is a highly instructive film and most enjoyable entertainment.

Chaplin's Picture Blazes New Trail

Predictions are being made that the screening of Charles Chaplin's own story in "A Woman of Paris," starring Edna Purviance, will stand forth in motion picture history as an epochal event that will exert a strong influence on the present day photodrama.

The entire story and production, conceived and produced by this master cinema genius promises to reveal a treatment of a vital problem, presented with extreme simplicity yet with an unbounded psychological force that will blaze a new trail along the highway of motion picture progress.

Claim "Manhandled" Better Than Even "Humming Bird"

In her latest Paramount picture, "Manhandled," which Allan Dwan

has made from Arthur Stringer's Saturday Evening Post story, Gloria Swanson will again prove a surprise to the public. In "Zaza," "The Humming Bird" and "A Society Scandal" critics have seen a new Swanson, one who could do more than just wear clothes well. Now she blossoms out as a comedienne of the first rank.

In each succeeding picture Allan Dwan, who is directing Miss Swanson, seems to find new histrionic ability in her and in "Manhandled" she combines mimicry, broad comedy, tears and pathos for one of the best character delineations she has yet brought to the screen. See her at the New Park on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dance and Be Beautiful

By Mae Murray
"Beauty is health—and health is beauty. What benefits the one is beneficial to the other, for the two are to my mind so closely connected that it is impossible to deal with one without considering the other."

"Therefore, when I mention dancing as my first aid to health, I mean it is also my first aid to health. Dancing has always been an all-around solace to me. It has given me the most complete mental and physical relaxation. There is the mental joy of creation—devising new steps, expressing new emotions, living other people's lives."

Miss Murray's theory is well brought out in "The French Doll," which is now playing at the New Park Theatre.

Vaudeville at New Park Tonight and Sunday at Regular Prices

Dare & Dare in comedy, songs and dances, will be presented at the New Park tonight and Sunday with "The French Doll" at regular prices.

TILDEN'S TOYING TACTICS CRITICIZED

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 13.—It takes a master at any game to toy with his opponents until the game is almost lost and then spurt out to victory. Such a tennis master is William T. Tilden, one of the greatest, if not the best player, that ever picked up a racquet.

Perhaps it is the only thrill that Tilden can get out of his tennis—to lazy along until the match point has about overtaken him and then to open up the throttle and play tennis when a momentary slip might cause his defeat. It is well within Tilden's right and it is the privilege of any other champion in any other line to play as he chooses, but there are the feelings of others to consider as well as his own.

During the recent national championships Tilden went to extremes several times to show what a court genius and what a master of all strokes he is. He dropped a set to Manuel Alonso in one of his matches and the loss of the set was due more to Tilden's high personal regard for the Spaniard than to any superiority on the other side of the net. In another match of the tournament, he fiddled around against Howard Kinsey until the crowd became impatient and Kinsey became visibly annoyed.

Tilden is a great player. There is no doubt of that. Crowds go out to see him play and they expect to see the finest tennis that he has. He always shows the best he has, but he does it in a peculiar way. He apparently is of the opinion that he can show his class only by toying with his opponents and when he allows them to reach the danger point by opening up his game and annihilating them.

Perhaps the crowd does like to see Tilden on the court as long as possible, but that is doubtful. The crowd wants to see championship tennis, even if it is demonstrated by a love set.

Bill Johnston, the most popular player on the American court, always does his very best against every opponent. When right, he wins by allowing his opponent as few games as possible and there never has been a complaint. Other players do not complain that he tries to show them up because they know his class and they know when they take the courts that they may be fortunate to get a few games.

Tilden may feel that he is not helping to develop the game when he overwhelms less capable players. But players against him probably expect to be overwhelmed, and it is doubtful if they prefer to have a number of games handed to them and then be shown up when the champion gets ready to show how good he is.

Several of the prominent players during the recent championships criticized Tilden for showing off before the crowd at the expense and humiliation of an opponent who never had a chance to win.

AMERICAN GOLF TEAM ENTERS THE FINAL MATCHES

(By United Press)
Garden City County Club, Garden City, N. Y., Sept. 13.—With a point lead of 3 to 1 resulting from yesterday's playing in the foursomes, the American amateur golf team goes in to the final matches against the British team for the Walker international cup here this afternoon. Eight singles matches will be played today and the British must win 6 in order to take the cup.

INTERNATIONAL POLO GAME SET FOR TODAY

(By United Press)
Westbury, L. I., Sept. 13.—Fair weather and a firm field today finally favored the first of the international polo matches, and both the American and the British teams were ready to swing out at 4 p. m. for the initial test of the challenge trophy. The many delays have favored the invaders who will have the services of Louis Lacey, their star hitter from the Argentine, who will also act as captain of the team from his place in back.

The American four was to be the same as originally selected. The only effect of the postponements upon Devereaux Milburn's aggregation was that the edge was slightly off their eagerness—and the American ponies are feared to be a bit stale. The Americans were favorites at 2 and 3 to 1.

AMERICA WINS AGAIN CLASSIC TENNIS CUP

DAVIS TROPHY FOR FIFTH YEAR IN SUCCESSION, STAYS IN THE U. S.

TILDEN AND JOHNSON DEFEAT PATTERSON AND WOOD OF AUSTRALIA

(By United Press)
Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—America retained the classic Davis cup, symbolic of the world's tennis championship, for the fifth year in succession, a new record.

The American team won the challenge round for the cup yesterday with William T. Tilden and William M. Johnston defeating Gerald Patterson and Pat O'Hara Wood, the Australian challengers, in the doubles match at the Germantown Cricket club. The Australians cannot win even if they take the two remaining singles matches today.

YOST DRAWS STARS FROM ALL CLIMES

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 13.—Michigan's football squad will be made up of 63 players when preliminary practice starts Sept. 15. Of this number, over half, or 32, of them are natives of the Wolverine state.

That speaks quite well for scholastic football as it is played in Michigan, considering that aspirants for the Maize and Blue eleven hail from practically every state above the Mason and Dixon line and as far west as the coast. Eight of the candidates come from Detroit, where 11 high schools have aided them in making ready for a trial on a big university team. The others are scattered all around the commonwealth.

Ohio claims six, Illinois four and Minnesota and Indiana one each. From New York states comes William Heath, a backfield prospect, while Kentucky is represented by Edliff Slaughter of Louisville, star linesman for the past two seasons. C. J. Munz, an end from Denver, Colo., is quite a distance from home and Canada boasts one candidate for gridiron honors in M. H. Shatz, a back from Toronto.

DODGERS CLIMB AS CARDINALS DEFEAT GIANTS

New York, Sept. 13.—The Giants got their first dose of western medicine yesterday and as a result their temperature decreased to the danger mark. While Brooklyn remained idle, the Cardinals plastered the Giants, 5 to 1.

Pittsburgh continued its snail-like pace to overtake the leaders by defeating the Boston Braves, 5 to 4. The standing of the leaders in the National league follows:

Team	W.	L.	Pct.	To Play
New York	84	55	.604	15
Brooklyn	85	56	.603	13
Pittsburgh	80	56	.588	18

The complexion of the American league remained unchanged yesterday, the three leaders spending the day traveling.

WHITNEY'S HORSE, MOTHER GOOSE, WINS FUTURITY

Belmont Park, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Harry Payne Whitney's 2-year-old Mother Goose, won the $75,000 futurity stakes here this afternoon, defeating a field of 29 starters.

Barbara Bronell, famous dancer starring in the musical sensation, "My China Doll," which will be presented at the New Park Theatre, Monday night, Sept. 15th. Miss Bronell is a dancer of international fame, having toured the world with Julian Eltinge and company and is making her second tour of the states in her new starring vehicle.

She is known as the "girl who defied Broadway." To the White Way, the name Barbara Bronell is known only by hearsay. Yet in defiance of all precedent and law theatrical, Barbara Bronell has risen to fame. Literally she has danced her way around the world, and without ever so much as stopping to dance in New York, and allow that critical audience a glance at her dancing toes. All the rules of the wisecracks, and all the standards of the successful artists, who have gone before and achieved stardom, and their name writ in electric, by their clever footwork, have been toppled over and laughed at by this dainty twenty-two year old girl. Today, without ever gracing a board in New York City, Barbara Bronell is considered, by managers and audiences alike, the "cleverest dancer in America."

She appears in "My China Doll" at the New Park Monday night, September 15.

Amazing Voyage in Films

Jules Verne won fame by his story "Around the World in Eighty Days." It took the "Speejacks" party sixteen months to accomplish the same feat, but then the facts of the case were different.

The "Speejacks" is a 98-foot motor launch owned and captained by Albert Y. Gowen, Commodore of the Cleveland Yacht club. Its trip to the farthest corners of the earth is one of the most amazing human experiences on record. The Paramount picturization of the voyage, "Around the World in the Speejacks," which was shown for the first time at the Lyceum Theatre last night and which is showing again tonight, is a highly instructive film and most enjoyable entertainment.

Chaplin's Picture Blazes New Trail

Predictions are being made that the screening of Charles Chaplin's own story in "A Woman of Paris," starring Edna Purviance, will stand forth in motion picture history as an epochal event that will exert a strong influence on the present day photodrama.

The entire story and production, conceived and produced by this master cinema genius promises to reveal a treatment of a vital problem, presented with extreme simplicity yet with an unbounded psychological force that will blaze a new trail along the highway of motion picture progress.

"A Woman of Paris" will be presented at the Lyceum Theatre starting Sunday for three days.

Claim "Manhandled" Better Than Even "Humming Bird"

has made from Arthur Stringer's Saturday Evening Post story, Gloria Swanson will again prove a surprise to the public. In "Zaza," "The Humming Bird" and "A Society Scandal" critics have seen a new Swanson, one who could do more than just wear clothes well. Now she blossoms out as a comedienne of the first rank.

In each succeeding picture Allan Dwan, who is directing Miss Swanson, seems to find new histrionic ability in her and in "Manhandled" she combines mimicry, broad comedy, tears and pathos for one of the best character delineations she has yet brought to the screen. See her at the New Park on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dance and Be Beautiful

By Mae Murray

"Beauty is health—and health is beauty. What benefits the one is beneficial to the other, for the two are to my mind so closely connected that it is impossible to deal with one without considering the other."

"Therefore, when I mention dancing as my first aid to beauty, I mean it is also my first aid to health. Dancing has always been an all-around solace to me. It has given me the most complete mental and physical relaxation. There is the mental joy of creation—devising new steps, expressing new emotions, living other people's lives."

Miss Murray's theory is well brought out in "The French Doll," which is now playing at the New Park Theatre.

Vaudeville at New Park Tonight and Sunday at Regular Prices

Dare & Dare in comedy, songs and dances, will be presented at the New Park tonight and Sunday with "The French Doll" at regular prices.
